

March 10–16, 2005
Issue 493

Kids

Robin Hood: A Political Romance

Castillo Theatre, 543 West 42nd St between Tenth and Eleventh Aves (212-941-1234). Subway: A, C, E to 42nd St — Port Authority. Fri 7pm; Sat 3, 7pm; Sun 3pm. Through Mar 27. $25, matinees $15, students and seniors $10. The under-21s of Youth Onstage! perform this song-, dance- and swordplay-laden Robin. The organization is devoted to developing raising consciousness in inner-city kids via performance projects; Dan Friedman has pumped up his script with a contemporary spin that tackles race, class and that old question: reform v. revolution. Thought provoking, if somewhat raw. Ages 11 and up.